N.O.W. CONVENTION

Green Bay, "Birthplace of the Midwest," will host the annual N.O.W. convention this spring.

The show will be held at the Hotel Northland in downtown Green Bay on the 4, 5, & 6 of June. Hotel reservation cards for the Hotel Northland are included in this issue of the N.O.W. News and those planning on attending are urged to get their reservations in early while there is still plenty of room.

HISTORICAL GREEN BAY

Green Bay is the oldest settlement in Wisconsin. Nicolet, whom the Green Bay Coin Club was named after, was a French Explorer and the first whiteman to visit this area. Nicolet landed at what is now Green Bay in 1634. Shortly thereafter a settlement was established which served as a trading post and mission.

Green Bay was a thriving community when Chicago and Milwaukee were nothing but wilderness. Tank Cottage, built the same year the American Revolution began in 1776, is still standing and is the oldest building in the state. The Bank of Wisconsin, Green Bay was the first bank west of Lake Michigan and issued banknotes in the 1830's from its quarters in John Jacob Astor's fur warehouse. Hazelwood, home of Morgan L. Martin, who was the president of the Bank of Wisconsin, is now open to the public. It was here at Hazelwood that the constitution for the state of Wisconsin was written.

Other historical attractions to see during your visit to Green Bay are Neville Public Museum, the National Railroad Museum and old Fort Howard Hospital. Among the notables stationed at Fort Howard were Dr. Beaumont, famous for his work in physiology, and two soldiers who later became president: Zachary Taylor & Jefferson Davis (Confederate States). Although no organized tours are planned for those who want to see the sights brochures will be available on all of the interesting things to see in Green Bay.

CONVENTION COMMITTEE

General chairman of the state convention is Tom Fruit. Tom will also be serving as bourse chairman and mail will reach him at 1257 N. Platten St., Green Bay.

An open invitation is extended to anyone to enter the competitive or non-competitive field for exhibits in Green Bay. Ray Phillips is the exhibit chairman. Ray's address is 1409 9th St., Green Bay and he will welcome any inquiries as well as exhibit applications.

"MAC'S NICKEL"

J.V. McDermott is planning on attending the show and will have his famous 1913 Liberty head nickel along. Look for Mac near Paul Bunyon and his big blue ox, Babe.

N.O.W. NOMINATING COMMITTEE

President Ralph Parker has announced the Nominating Committee for the 1965 Convention is: Gerald Johnson, Wisconsin Rapids; James Medd, Green Bay; and Wm. Spencer of Racine. These gentlemen will nominate a slate for three Board of Governors positions.

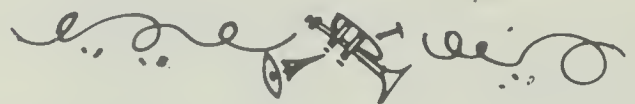

HOSPITALITY ROOM

Chet Krause is planning on bringing his entire "coin Collector Capital Crew" to Green Bay for the convention and will host the hospitality room.

BRUNCH INSTEAD OF BANQUET

A Sunday morning brunch is planned instead of the usual banquet. This idea has met with favorable response and should work out well as it eliminates the necessity of closing the bourse on Saturday evening.

1965 N.O.W. MEDAL

A contest was held by the Nicolet Coin Club of Green Bay to select a design for the 1965 Convention medal of N.O.W.

Winner of the contest was Mark Detert who designed a medal bearing the seal of the city of Green Bay: "Green Bay-Gateway to the Great Waterway" around an ocean ship and surrounded by "Nicolet Coin Club 1965." Mark won a $25 award & will receive a silver N.O.W. Medal.

Reverse of the medal will be the standard badger superimposed on the outline of the state of Wisconsin which has been used on previous N.O.W. medals. This is the 3rd N.O.W. medal to be struck. It promises to be a long-live series.

A.N.A. BUILDING FUND GROWS WITH WISCONSIN HELP

Over 3 years ago the Whitman Publishing Company of Racine started the ball rolling with a gift of $2,000. Now they have become the 1st A.N.A. "benefactor" by contributing $10,000 to the A.N.A. building fund. The check was sent to Whitman's vice president, R. S. Yeoman, who edits the "Red Book." Incidentally, Mr. Yeoman is heading the drive for funds in Wisconsin and is doing a fine job. Even without Whitman's large donation, the donations from Wisconsin collectors have been many so far and we rank 3rd among all states with contributions of $13.10 for each A. N. A. member in the state. Two others have become "patrons" with gifts of over $2,000:

J.V. McDermott, South Milwaukee	$2059.50
Albert J. Tanek, Kenosha	$2100.00

A.N.A. HOME OFFICIALS RECEIVE INVITATION TO VISIT WISCONSIN

Members of the site selection committee of the American Numismatic Association have received an invitation from the mayor of the city of Prairie du Chien, to select one of a number of attractive locations in that community for the projected A. N. A. Home and Headquarters, which the city will donate free from local and state taxes.

Mayor Edward G. Farrell, in letters sent to A.N.A. president P.K. Anderson; Matt H. Rothert, first vice-president; governors Ralph Cleaver & Charles Johnson, and Don Sherer, A. N. A. secretary, outlined the rich historical heritage of the city. Prairie du Chien, he pointed out, is a community that has lived under three flags; the French, the British & the American, and is the second oldest city in Wisconsin.

YEOMAN HOME BURGLARIZED

On Christmas Eve, the home of Richard S. Yeoman was broken into and burglarized. The theft occurred while Mr. and Mrs. Yeoman were away from home for a few hours. The house was ransacked in an apparent effort to find coins. Two small coin collections valued at approximately $3,000, a fur coat and jewelry were taken. The thieves were apparently surprised by the early return of the Yeomans and made a hasty escape.

Yeoman reported that the loss of the coins involved only a few modern U. S. issues and did not include any rare or irreplaceable coins since his collection was stored in a bank vault.

WISCONSIN PUBLISHER EXPANDS

The 50,000 dollar expansion of Krause Publications, home of Numismatic News & Coins Magazine is nearing completion at Iola, Wis. A new brick and block modern wing will more than double the work area of the present structure, and make possible seven new offices. Reason for the expansion is the enlarging of the Krause staff to 33 full-time employees. New faces at the Coin Collectors Capital are Jim Lyman, Clem (double indendo) Bailey, Jerome Kruger, Doug Watson, Gene Olstad and Doug Huntington. These men, along with the original Numismatic News crew, will handle the highly accelerated Krause Publications business line that now includes hardback books, and considerable outside printing endeavors. The new look inside the building includes a fine new lobby lounge, (complete with a pretty blond receptionist), large conference room, carpeted halls, and United States mint medals in display cases mounted on the walls throughout the office area.

The new building is conceived & designed to protect the individuality of the group of creative personnel, yet set a framework of communication excellence. N.O.W. members traveling in the area have been invited by past N.O.W. president Krause to stop in for a visit.

ROUND AND ROUND

With but few exceptions coins have been round since their inception many years ago. Round coins are certainly easier to stack, snugger in the purse, and handier for coin folders. How can one "roll" in wealth with many sided money? It would be bumpy riding with 12-sided "cartwheels." It seems odd that with all the round money around, UncleSam doesn't have enough to go around.

BACK WHEN

In the days before the handy billfold (is this the why of folding money?) paper money, if in considerable amounts, was carried in rolls, held intact by a rubber-band or tied with a string. Thus a wealthy man is one with a big roll (is this the why of rolling in wealth??) Amounts too small to roll were wadded. A well-to-do man is one who had quite a wad.

1873 was the year of big families. It takes 17 coins to form a type set of this year. It includes three sets of twins, nickel & silver five cent pieces, standard and trade dollars. It also takes 6 gold coins.

Edward C. Rochette, left, & Chester L. Krause, editor & publisher respectively of Numismatic News, Iola, Wis., shook hands over a special president's assay commission medal. Past N.O.W. president Krause was named to the commission in 1961 and Rochette was named this year. The annual "Trial of the Pyx" was held at the U. S. Mint in Philadelphia on February 10, with Ed being among 21 persons appointed to the commission by President Johnson. This commission meets once a year and samples of our coins are weighed and analyzed. Mr. Rochette reports that our money is as "sound as a dollar."

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Enclosed with this issue is a membership application blank for Numismatists of Wisconsin membership. We hope you will give it to a friend or coin club who does not belong to N. O. W. By June we would like to have a membership of 800. If each of you sponsors another member the goal will easily be reached.

PROOF LIKE AND PROOF

Canada proof-like coins are struck only once during the coining, unlike our proof coins which are double struck.

GUESS WHO GOT MARRIED???

Harry Becker, who has been handling the printing and mailing of our paper at Iola, recently "hit the dust." Welcome to the "happy" fold.

N.O.W. FOUNDER HAS MISFORTUNE

Russell Porter of Milwaukee, one of the founding fathers of Numismatists of Wisconsin, had been recuperating following a heart attack. The first night he left the house in 3 months his home was burglarized and his coin collection valued at more than $10,000 was stolen from a basement safe. The following night damage was estimated at $20,000 resulted from a fire in a two-story brick building owned by Porter.

The burglary occurred when Porter and his wife were at a neighbor's house playing cards. Though the safe had a tear gas bomb in the door the burglars helped themselves to towels from the bathroom to protect themselves while they worked, and took personal papers and jewels in addition to the coin collection. They apparently used 5 suitcases from a second floor bedroom to carry the loot, and also caused about $350 in damages to the house in the operation.

The fire in the apartment, store, and office building was said to have been started by a Christmas tree being burned in a basement incinerator and then spreading to a wall.

NOTICE CLUB SECRETARIES

N.O.W. is interested in knowing the inventory of club - owned exhibit cases in the State. Would you please send us this information? We also would like to know whether they are available to be rented by other clubs.

N.O.W. EXHIBIT CASES AVAILABLE

N.O.W. has 24 A.N.A.-type exhibit cases available for use by member clubs—free! The club must only arrange shipping from their present storage location in Baraboo and store the cases until another request for use comes in.

Requests for cases should be made to Secretary, Jim Kroepfl.

FRANKLYN H. MILLER, A.N.A. #6602

Franklyn H. Miller, Milwaukee, died Feb. 7, 1965 at the age of 61 in Del Ray Beach, Fla. Survived by his wife, Catherine, 2 daughters and a sister, he was a well - known figure in Southern Wis. where he was active for many years in his insurance agency business and in coin club affairs. He was a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

As a special contributor to the Guide of U.S. Coins since 1959 he was largely responsible for keeping records of auction prices and other data used in the compilation of yearly valuations. His activities in this capacity made him a frequent visitor to most of the national conventions and a friend of countless collectors and dealers.

(Mr. Miller's home was also burglarized recently, within 10 days of the time that the Russell Porter home was robbed.)

GO WHOLE HOG

The expression "to go whole hog" is traceable to English money. A shilling was sometimes referred to as a hog and thus one willing to spend a whole shilling is willing to "go whole hog."

A GOLD BRICK

All the gold ever mined since the beginning of human history, if assembled together and melted into a brick, would fit inside the confines of a baseball diamond and would measure 90 feet high. This cube would be valued at $112 billion.

FRED VOECKS OPENS NEW STORE

The Fox Valley Coin Exchange, boasting one of the finest and most modern facilities in the Midwest, has recently opened for business in downtown Appleton.

The new quarters feature private carpeted offices, walk-in vaults and up-to-the-minute teletype service.

Fred Voecks and his son, Fritz, welcome collectors traveling through the area to stop in and view their new facilities.

Other features of the establishment include a recreation room with pool and ping-pong tables and also a cocktail lounge for the entertaining of their good customers. Fred and Fritz maintain that they do not use these facilities until all the work is caught up.

The Fox Valley Coin Exchange is located at 315 E. College Avenue in Appleton and is a member of the USCE Teletype network (call letters FOXY). An extensive stock of coins, paper money, and supplies is carried at all times.

COPIES OF MINT REPORT AVAILABLE

The Annual Report of the Director of the Mint is now available. This handy, fact-filled book may be obtained by collectors by sending $1 to the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington D.C. 20402. The 222-page, paper-cover book includes reports on the production and consumption of gold and silver for the calendar year 1962.

CLUB PROFILE

The Paper Cities Coin Club (Wisconsin Rapids, Port Edwards & Nekoosa) had its humble beginning at Beys Hotel in Nekoosa on January 8, 1958. Responsible for this gathering was Tim Rottler of Nekoosa who had herded together the 12 persons present with the purpose of forming a coin club.

After a shaky first year, the club suspended meetings for about a year and was then reborn. The new meeting place was the Port Edwards YMCA building where fine facilities were available in the spring of 1959.

Membership, however, never flowered in this setting and in 1963 the club moved into Wisconsin Rapids to meet in the City Hall in the City Council Chambers.

The club is now growing rapidly and at last tally had a membership of 42 adults and a large following of young people.

Highlights of the year's events is the annual picnic (featuring Minnie Washkovics' famous bratwurst), a real family treat. The picnic is held on the 1st meeting in June each year. Regular meetings are held the second and fourth Thursday of each month, city hall on West Grand Avenue (upstairs).

OFFICERS: Dave Smith	President
Gerald Johnson	Vice-Pres.
Minnie Washkovic	Sec-Treas.

Jake Simon shows an unusual coin he estimates is worth $200. The coin at the top is a 1916 Mercury-head dime. It is stamped on a blank the same size as penny at the left. The other coin is a normal dime, for comparison. Odd-sized coins seldom get out of the Mint.

COLLECTORS' PROFILES -- Jake Simon

One of the "old timers" in coin collecting is Jake Simon, formally from Milwaukee. Jake's interest in coins began:

"As a kid, I collected most anything; stamps, cigar box lids that I nailed on the stable walls, cigarette pictures that used to come in packs of Sweet Caporals, minerals, fossils, Indian relics, and I do not know what else. Along the way I accumulated a few coins.

"Shortly after W.W. 2, an operation prevented my doing my orchard work, so I rented my farm and took to selling nursery stock through the country. Then I really went to town collecting relics and antiques (the latter for the Mrs.). The depression in '29 put a stop to that and I started to sell some of my stamps and coins. That was the start of the business as it grew into a full-time operation, although for awhile my lunches consisted of sausage sandwiches and beans.

"In 1936 a group of 7 or 9 coin collectors met in my office and formed the local club. One collector who joined shortly thereafter was Ted Hammer, then of Burlington, Iowa and now living in Wichita, Kansas. He was the motivating cause of the formation of the Iowa Numismatic Association which met in Iowa City in 1938 and now writes a column for numismatic papers. I was a charter member of this INA and conducted the first auction. I guess I was not very good as I recall selling a circulated 1856 F E cent for $19, which I had previously offered the owner, Elmer Laurent of Clinton Iowa, $25 for.

"I don't remember the year I joined the A.N.A. but my number is 9903 (ed. note—that would be early in 1945). I belong to the C.S.N.S. and have belonged to more local clubs than I can remember, some of which were honorary. I missed the N.. O.W. organizational meeting as I had an accident in Sioux Falls at that time.

"I gave up my business in Davenport about 1951 on account of my health and went to live with my daughter in Milwaukee. I was retired then and did not have a store but did a little buying and selling, attending many conventions.

"I have a son in Denver and have been coming here since 1948, liked it better every time I came and finally moved here shortly before the A.N.A. convention last year. I fully intended to open a store, but did not find a suitable room and so converted the living room of my apartment into an office. Outside of meetings most of my dealing is with dealers. I thought I could "take it easy", but am now busier and working harder than I ever did in the store. While I have a fair category of U. S., I am going in strongly for foreign and importing from many countries."

EXCUSE OUR ERROR

Jake reports that he recently attended the convention in Hawaii where he had a table on the last day... He sold most of the coins he had along, however, he did pick up some nice material, including an estate of Hawaiian coins. There are 4 clubs in the Islands, and the dealers are mostly newcomers, whose stock of late material is both over-graded and over - priced. Jake also reports that when those pretty Hawaiian girls kissed him as he got off the plane, he decided he really liked Hawaii, so he stayed for an extra two weeks.

Jake is presently residing at 1055 Sherman, Denver, Colorado 80203.

It has been called to our attention that we haven't been carrying the full list of Board of Governors. You'll find Lyle Thomas' name at the top of our list. We inadvertently missed Lyle's name about 3 issues ago and have carried the wrong list ever since.

Employed by the Bell Telephone System, Lyle has been very active numismatically in the southern part of our state. He was largely responsible for the highly-successful Janesville - Beloit two-day shows. A past president of the Janesville Coin Club, he helped found clubs in Whitewater and Monroe. Lyle collects paper currency and has exhibited at past conventions.
